St. Hyacinth's 4th Annual Blessing of Polish dancers. Was a great success thank you for doing such a great job representing Opole!! Thank you to Michael Guirey and Millie Bilby for bringing our gifts to the altar!

Boys practice will begin in March. It will run from 7:45pm to 8:00pm. Third group will begin practice at 8:00pm and fourth will begin at 8:45pm due to the boys practice. There will be no extra practices during the month of March as originally scheduled, we will have extra practices in April, watch for additional dates.

American Costumes are here. I will bring all American costumes Tuesday, March 7th and will need payment for the costumes at that time. The cost of your costume is on the label with your name.

Tigers tickets: We have begun collecting ticket orders. Your ticket money must be turned in with your order. Maria Gregg has volunteered to help with the distribution and ordering of the tickets. Thank you Maria for all your help.

Third group Polish costumes are done, if you have not yet paid me for the material the cost is $20 per costume.

We are fast approaching recital time and it is once again time for program ads. Please take a sheet and make out your families ad. (each family is responsible for one full page ad at a cost of $50) If you know of any businesses or family and friends that would like to buy an ad in the program book please give them an ad contract also. All ads are due by Tuesday, March 28th.

We have been asked to participate in St. Marys Orchard Lake festival. The date is Sunday, May 28th from 1:30 -2:00pm. Please sign up on the sheet if you can dance.
